

Community Guidelines

Trusted Advisors LLC | Version 1.0 | Effective Date: July 1, 2026

These Guidelines apply to all Trusted Advisors LLC communities, including MaestroAI and future Trusted Advisors products, services, applications, and community spaces.

Purpose

Trusted Advisors communities exist to help people learn, grow, achieve meaningful outcomes, and support one another. Every member helps shape whether the community feels useful, respectful, and productive.

We Are Building Something Together

Members are encouraged to ask thoughtful questions, share knowledge and experiences, celebrate progress, offer constructive feedback, and respect differing perspectives. The goal is to protect the community, not punish people.

Expected Conduct

- Treat others with respect and professionalism.
- Communicate constructively and in good faith.
- Respect the privacy of other members.
- Share accurate information whenever possible.
- Follow applicable laws and regulations.
- Use community resources responsibly.

Prohibited Conduct

Harassment, bullying, hate speech, threats, intimidation, personal attacks, doxxing, fraud, impersonation, spam, excessive self-promotion, and deliberate disruption of community activities are prohibited.

Moderation, Violations, and Consequences

Trusted Advisors LLC reserves the right to review reported conduct and take action it determines appropriate, including educational guidance, warnings, temporary suspension, removal from community spaces, or permanent termination of community access.

For most violations, Trusted Advisors may attempt to educate and correct behavior before imposing significant penalties. A first significant violation may result in a warning or temporary suspension of up to 30 days. Repeated violations may result in permanent removal. Severe violations, including threats, harassment campaigns, hate speech, doxxing, fraud, or conduct that places members at risk, may result in immediate permanent removal without prior warning.

During any temporary removal, suspension, or permanent termination, subscription fees, membership fees, or other charges may be non-refundable to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Reinstatement and Final Authority

Suspended members may request reinstatement after the suspension period. Reinstatement is not guaranteed. Trusted Advisors LLC reserves final authority over community participation and enforcement decisions.
